Last week: Ashley Bynum, UT Martin associate athletic director for internal operations, gave a presentation about the history of Title IX when she visited Kiwanis on March 6. Ashley highlighted the important contributions of Pat Head Summit and Betty Giles, both pioneers in women's athletics, and the work of others as she discussed the impact of Title IX, the most commonly used name for the landmark federal civil rights law in the United States that was enacted as part of the Education Amendments of 1972. Title IX prohibits sex-based discrimination in any school or any other education program that receives funding from the federal government.

Did you know? The name "Kiwanis" was from an expression of native Americans in the Detroit area which was found in Bishop Baraga's dictionary of the Otipew language. The expression "Nune Kee-wan-is" means broadly "we trade" or "we share our talents." As a coined word, however, "Kiwanis" has no meaning except as the name of a leading international service club!
