Last Week—Key Leader 2024

Linda Ramsey noted that applications are still being accepted for youth ages 14-18 to attend Key Leader Weekend on April 26-28 at Lakeshore Camp and Retreat.

The deadline for registration is Friday, April 12. After that date, interested persons will be added to a waiting list. Since limited spots are available, Linda Ramsey, who has worked with this program for more than 14 years, urges registration as soon as possible.

To register, go to www.wtnkeyleader.org. Scholarships are still available for student participants, student facilitators, and chaperones. In particular, Linda is hoping for more applicants from Martin Westview and members are urged to encourage students to apply.

Linda said this weekend is an extraordinary opportunity for high school students to obtain leadership skills by participating in hands-on experiences that help them understand what it means to hold on to your values.

She also stated that participating in this weekend event gives students numerous opportunities to gain additional self-confidence and leadership ability. Participants will be a part of both indoor and outdoor activities and will meet other youth from throughout our region, she said.

As a part of her presentation, Linda distributed information on learning styles and personality types, discussed a meet-your-neighbors exercise with questions to use as ice breakers, and led the group in a typical Key Leader interactive exercise where participants could learn more about each other.
