

March 19, 2025

"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Today's Program

Amber Minton, head UTM STUNT coach will join us to discuss one of the NCAA's newest sports.

Last week: Colin Hatch, senior associate athletics director of development at UT Martin for the Office of Development and the UT Foundation, was the guest speaker for the March 12 meeting of Kiwanis. Colin spoke of his unique perspective as a college athlete (baseball, Union University) and his extensive work in sales that led him to his current position where his passion for athletics and sales combine. He reminded the group of several upcoming opportunities for support of Skyhawk athletes, including Captain's Challenge on April 1-2 where donations will be matched.

Easter Egg Hunt: Alisse Kirk from Martin Parks and Recreation talked Anna with us about changes the city is planning for the 2025 Easter Egg Hunt. Alisse wondered if Kiwanis would like to take care of concessions and that those could be free—free coffee, hot chocolate, and water. She also said that if Kiwanis wanted to give out anything else, that would be fine. Further planning is underway, and volunteers will be needed.
