“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Dr. Mary Radford (Family Nurse Practitioner, Professor & Nursing Dept. Chair) will be updating us on Nursing Dept. news, curriculum changes, & new acquisitions.

Last Regular Meeting

Ainsley Chandler, a 4-H member and high school rising junior from Union City, gave an information-filled presentation about her recent participation in state and national 4-H events when she was the featured speaker for Kiwanis at the April 22 meeting. Ainsley spoke of preparing her leadership portfolio and becoming a Tennessee state finalist for the National 4-H Ignite Conference held March 25-29 in Washington, D.C. She highlighted how at the state level she participated in leadership workshops, service opportunities, a legislative visit, and visits to the History Museum and Bicentennial Mall in Nashville. At the national level, Ainsley listened to keynote speakers and attended leadership and educational sessions. Tours and sightseeing included the United States Holocaust National Museum, Ford's Theatre, the National Archives, the Library of Congress, National History Museum, and the Space and Aviation Museum. Ainsley's mother was also a guest at the Kiwanis meeting. Mary Morgan, Kiwanis member

Weakley County 4-H Extension agent, said “She (Ainsley) has grown so much just this year as a communicator and as a leader, which is all due to local groups like Kiwanis supporting her.”

Last Week’s Social Meeting

Twelve members and guests, some who were experiencing their first visit to Bricks and Brews in Union City, enjoyed the setting, friendliness, food, and beverages list. As a special treat for those “wanting dessert,” Katie had arranged for a private tour of the work being done on the Capitol Theatre, which was the subject of the April 15th meeting. One member recalled a “first date” at that location a “couple years” back! If you have not tried Bricks and Brews, put it on your list of casual restaurants to enjoy!
